

Statement of Intention

David Jay Flood offers an economic understanding of the development process which allows the firm to communicate with developers in helping to design feasible projects, incorporating maximum density, economic building construction types with usable efficiency ratios while maximizing location amenities and issues to create the highest potential value.

List of Clients

List of Clients:

American International Group

Chrysler Realty

Colville Indian Reservation

Dominion Property Company

International Paper

Janss Corporation

Ralston Purina

Tejon Ranch Company

Weyerhaeuser Corporation